ALONG THE WATER FRONT.
WEATHER: Clear at 3 p. m.; wind west, velocity 4 miles.
 Forecast from San Francisco and day from Crescent City, where the McDonalds from Portland, Esther Schuchman and her husband, Harry, who have sailed with full cargoes of goods consigned to wholesalers at this port, are expected to arrive. The Waverett, is one of the largest sailing vessels scheduled for this port. She is owned by the Waverett Sailing Co., and the Steamer Samoa, Capt. Madson, is to sail from Caspar with 20,000 feet of lumber for the Waverett. The Waverett is a Barkentine Charles F. Crocker, Capt. Vane, finished discharging her lumber cargo today in ballast for a return reload.

Steamer Frontia, Capt. Ahlstrom, is discharging her cargo of lumber for San Francisco with freight and passengers.

The Little Steamer Arrow, Capt. Larson, at this port today for supplies, bound Seattle to Manzanilla, Mexico. She has been chartered by the Manzanilla Co. and was purchased by Lucy Bros. who have a large mine at Manzanilla, and will be Municipal Dentists.

Municipal dentists are appointed and paid for by many of the large cities and cities of Germany. In St. Petersburg, for example, 2686 children were examined last year, 6265 teeth were examined and 1911 were extracted. The work is done by a special dental class to the dentist, who examines the mouth quickly and marks on each child has brought without any pain. It is necessary. If one must go to a dentist, Russia is also joining in this movement and has already fitted up similar institutions in St. Petersburg and why not, or rather, why come to the United States for dental appliances, when the general population necessary to good health and, if, also, a large and portion of citizens have the means to do so, it follows that the public concern is of the nature of as much importance to the community that workmen should be masticating and directed to the city that there should be a large public concern in the exhibition of preventive medicine has so far as our American minds that they ordered the soldiers' health to be attended to by the Government service by means enhanced. But the soldier's health is not the only one that is last paid by the civil worker, and to his teeth and service we are entirely indifferent.—[American Medicine.

UNIVERSITY.

A PARTICULARLY pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon, when Miss Blanche Traynor, daughter of J. H. Traynor, and J. H. Blair were married at 136 West Fourth street, the ceremony being performed by Very Rev. J. H. Glass, C.M., D.D., of Vincent's Church. The house presented a gay appearance, hung with the graceful pepper boughs, and berries, and in the parlor asparagus plumose, and white carnations were artistically combined. There was a canopy beneath which the couple stood, and suspended from this was a bell of carnations tied with airy tulle. An aisle of white ribbon was arranged from the hall to the altar, and Miss Lila Blair, the pretty baby sister of the groom, carried the ring on a satin pillow. This little girl wore white with pink ribbon trimmings, and the bride, who is a fair girl with bright eyes, and curly brown hair, wore white gown and elaborate shawl. She carried white roses tied with tulle. A supper was served later in the dining-room which was bright with scarlet roses and ferns. The bride was formerly of Branson, New York, and the groom has been a resident of Los Angeles for twelve years, and is well known as president of the Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge, No. 11, and also as a popular member of La Grand Comedians, No. 1. After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Blair will be at home in their own bungalow, No. 136 West Fourth street.

Rev. Wiley J. Phillips and W. R. Kelsey were the speakers at a Prohibition rally held Friday evening in the gymnasium of the University of Southern California. The issues of the campaign from a prohibition viewpoint were presented. Mr. Phillips spoke of the political parties as the agents of the voter and made the man behind the ballot responsible for the acts of the parties he supported. W. R. Kelsey, of Whittier, was hopeful for the future of the Prohibition party and believed in its ultimate success. Edwin B. Ashcraft, a member of the Edgewood class of the University, acted as chairman of the meeting. This evening members of the Third Academic class will be entertained at the home of Miss Lucille Larkey. Halloween will be observed with fitting gaily decorated. Refreshments were served.

Contractor Returned.

John W. Bell, a government contractor who left for Porto Rico about a year ago, has been ordered back to the United States to work on the Texas water front, and after the completion of this task will come back to Southern California.

Philharmonic Orchestra.

The year's work of the Philharmonic Orchestra, a large body of amateur musicians who pursue the art of music, will begin tonight at Steinway Hall under the direction of Arnold Kraus, who has had the group in charge during the past year.

Data of Bazaar.

The charity bazaar to be given by the Maria Louise Union will be held Thursday evening in the vestry room of the Temple Sinai B'nai B'rith at Ninth and Hope streets. Rev. Robert J. Burdette will deliver the address. A good programme is promised.

Temple Union.

The November meeting of the literary section of the Temple Union will be held Thursday evening in the vestry room of the Temple Sinai B'nai B'rith at Ninth and Hope streets. Rev. Robert J. Burdette will deliver the address. A good programme is promised.

Better Schedule.

It is reported that the schedule along the Pasadena main line, which has been on a ten-minute interval, will be shortened during the winter months, so that two cars every fifteen minutes will accommodate passengers. Pasadena cars and Garvan cars are to be equally affected, it is said.

Thrown from Wagon.

A. J. Halstead, a farmer residing at 1000 Micheltorena street, was thrown out of his wagon near Westlake Park yesterday afternoon and was severely bruised about the ribs. His horse made a sudden turn, and Halstead, who is an old man, was hurled to the ground. At the Receiving Hospital it was said that owing to his age the shock might be hard on him.

Stove Explodes.

The explosion of a gasoline stove started a fire that completely consumed the one-story building at 211 E. Hamilton at No. 501 E. 1st street, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Hamilton and his family were barely able to escape in their night clothes and saved some of their effects. The house was insured for $500 and the furnishings for $200.

High Court Divided.

The High Court of the Foresters has decided to divide California into two jurisdictions, to be known hereafter as North California High Court and South California High Court. The latter will cover all the territory south of Santa Clara, and give the jurisdiction to this jurisdiction, while the North California Court will have ninety-two local bodies. The membership in the south division exceeds the north by about 100. It is probable the next session of the High Court will be held in Los Angeles.

Unlucky Find.

John Lewis, a laborer, was arrested yesterday afternoon on suspicion. It is claimed that he picked up a $20 gold piece in the Crown Cafe which was found dropped on the floor by a patron. Lewis was searched by a policeman and a $20 piece was found in an inside pocket. In his purse was $2.25. At the station he protested that he had not found the gold piece on the floor and yet could not explain why it was not in his purse with the rest of his money. A complaint will be brought against him today.

Illustrated Lecture.

Rev. H. W. White delivered an illustrated lecture last evening at the University Methodist Church on "The Life and Social Customs of the Japanese People." Points brought out in the lecture were the patriotism of the Japanese exemplified in their intense love of country, their attitude toward Russia as shown in cartoons by native artists, and the influence on Japanese life of American ideas. Many interesting slides were shown portraying the wonderful advancement made by the people of the yellow race in the past few years.

Death of Mrs. Curtis.

Mrs. Mary Curtis, who was so fearfully burned by the explosion of a coal oil lamp at her home on Lucy street Saturday evening, after suffering excruciating agony, died yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the Emergency and General Hospital. The little baby, which was also burned, is not expected to live. Dr. H. C. Dundas said last evening, when speaking of the case: "While the baby is still alive, I am afraid its injuries will prove fatal. The mother was burned over more than half the surface of her body; she inhaled the flame, and there was no hope for her." The father, Ernest Curtis, with the baby and other three children, are at the home of Mrs. Miller, mother of the dead woman, who lives at No. 223 Huron street.

"From John to Kate."

G. F. Murry, a teacher employed at the store of J. R. Newberry on the corner of Pico and Catalina streets, recently had the unique experience of cutting from the stomach of a calf a solid gold wedding ring. Murry while making the incision into the slaughtered animal heard a peculiar metallic sound, and on investigation found the ring imbedded in the lining of the stomach. The ring was in perfect condition, shining and bright as on the day in which it was presented to the blushing bride, whoever she may be. The calf belonged to H. E. Howard, driver of whose place of business is in the Masonic Hall building on the corner of Pico and El Molino streets, but Mr. Howard knew nothing concerning the ring on which engraved the words, "From John to Kate."

Mother's Bill Settled.

There repose in the private office of the Angelus, an overcoat, a dress-suit case and an alligator satchel, representing with the contents of the hand luggage, a money value of $100 or more. These are the effects left by "G. Huber of Chicago," the handsome and honest-looking traveler who took flight so precipitately from the Angelus lobby Friday evening when he was a representative of Hotel del Monte of Monterey, walk in from the street. The Monterey man was looking for "Huber," or "Hagelberg," to collect from him a $50 board bill that he had "overlooked" on leaving the well-known resort, where he had also made some "little" from guests. "Huber," or "Hagelberg," knew full well what the Monterey man was up to, and being uneasy over the fact of his disappearance, that he had just burglarized a rust room in the Angelus, he saw for the other door, with the northern hotel man at his heels, and barely escaped by leaping onto a passing car. The effects left by the fellow are more than enough to cover the unpaid bill which he left at the Angelus. In the present case is a certificate of membership in Victoria Lodge, No. 1055, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of England, of Hongkong, issued to and signed with the name of Christopher Wilhelm Jean Hagelberg. The fugitive went by the name of Hagelberg at the Del Monte.

220 West Fourth Street. Market St.

It's true that a man is never happy until he has ceased to care whether he is or not. A man who is actually well dressed never worries about whether he is or not—after he is once dressed.

A man cannot actually feel at home in garments that are not made especially for himself. Your own individuality cannot be properly framed by attire that would be practically as becoming to another man in style, in fit, in finish and in fabric as it is to yourself.

Ready-made attire never has and never will be the attire for the particular man, the man who is actually well dressed.

Made-for-you attire made for you by Brauer & Krohn is the kind you can get into and wear worry-free about your dress—for you will be well dressed, individually dressed, becomingly dressed and impressively dressed. We have a splendid line of new ready-made attire.

One of the most important sales we conduct each year. Hundreds of special attractions. Our purpose is to make it an object for you to do your trading in November instead of waiting until busy December.

"The characters in David Graham Phillips' latest novel, 'The Cost,' are genuinely, thoroughly, refreshingly American, people whom you feel it would be a pleasure to know—honest, prosperous, wholesome."

—Collier's Weekly.

"The Cost," David Graham Phillips' new book, combines more qualities that will capture the popular fancy than any recent novel."

—Louisville Courier-Journal.
